STANDING ORDER

On September 30, 2024, the James H. Quillen United States Courthouse in Greeneville, Tennessee was closed due to a utilities outage resulting from flooding caused by Hurricane Helene. In light of the closure, on October 1, 2024, the Court entered Standing Order SO-24-11 temporarily closing the District Court Clerk's Office location in Greeneville. Utilities have now been restored, and the building is undergoing preparations to reopen to the public.

The Court ORDERS that the James H. Quillen United States Courthouse in Greeneville, Tennessee will reopen to the public on Wednesday, October 9, 2024. Physical filings may be made at a drop box located at the District Court Clerk's Office intake counter on that day. The District Court Clerk's Office will resume normal operations on Thursday, October 10, 2024.

SO ORDERED.

TRAVIS R. MCDONOUGH,
CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
