APPOINTMENT TYPE: Full-Time Permanent

LOCATION: Chattanooga, TN

SALARY: $90,899 to $99,163 (Levels 3 to 5), plus authorized transcript fees
Starting salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience.
Please review the Qualifications section for more information.

CLOSING DATE: June 29, 2021

POSITION OVERVIEW:

The U.S. District Court Clerk's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee is recruiting for an Official Court Reporter who is realtime certified. Official Court Reporters are appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Court and must comply with the requirements of the Judicial Conference of the United States and the Court Reporter Management Plan of this Court. This position is assigned to the Clerk's Office and reports to the Clerk of Court or other designee of the Clerk's Office. Official Court Reporters serve the Court en banc and are not assigned to a specific judge. Job duties include:

- Performing verbatim reporting services for any proceeding as specified by statute, rule, or order of the Court.
- Reporting all proceedings using electronic machine shorthand equipment that produces an electronic storage media capable of translation and printing by computer-assisted transcription equipment and utilizing digital sound recording equipment to record all proceedings.
- Providing realtime reporting upon request of a party who has agreed to pay the fees established by the Court and the Judicial Conference. Providing realtime feed for any judicial officer as directed, without charge.
- Reading back all or any portions of the court record upon request of the presiding judge.
- Providing transcripts of proceedings requested by a party who has agreed to pay the fees established by the Court and the Judicial Conference. Providing transcripts of any proceedings that a judge or the Court may direct without charge.
- Filing with the Clerk of Court a copy of all transcripts prepared within the time frames and consistent with the fees established by the Court, the Judicial Conference, and the Court Reporter Management Plan.
- Filing a transcript or providing an electronic sound recording to the Court, without charge, of all arraignments, pleas, and proceedings in connection with the imposition of sentence in criminal cases. Certification of the recording by the court reporter is required.
- Providing transcription of digital audio records.
- Certifying and filing with the Clerk of Court in PDF format all original notes and other original records of proceedings the reporter has recorded.
- Complying with all administrative duties assigned by supervisor and the Court.
- Traveling to other divisional offices as necessary.
- Working as part of a team to serve all of the judges of the Court and being available to work irregular hours as dictated by the Court.
- Performing other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS:

To qualify for the position, applicants must have at least four years of prime court reporting experience in the freelance field of service or in other courts or a combination thereof; and must have qualified by testing for listing on the registry of professional reporters (RPR) of the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA) or passed an equivalent qualifying examination.

Candidates also must be certified as having passed the National Court Reporters Association Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR) examination or passed an equivalent qualifying examination. The Court will accept applications from individuals who are not realtime certified. Applicants must still meet the minimum qualifications listed in the previous paragraph in order to be considered for the position. Employment is contingent upon the successful completion of the realtime certification requirements by the date of appointment. Applicants holding a Certificate of Merit (RMR) from the NCRA are preferred.

Starting salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience:

- Level 3: $90,899– Realtime certification (CRR) required.
- Level 4: $95,030– Realtime (CRR) & merit (RMR) certification required.
- Level 5: $99,163– Only applicable to current Federal Judiciary Court Reporters hired before 10/11/2009 with realtime (CRR) and merit (RMR) certification.

Official Court Reporters are entitled to authorized transcript fees in addition to the salary amounts listed above. Transcript fees from transcripts sold to private parties are retained by the Official Court Reporter. Transcripts requested by the Court must be furnished free of charge.

The successful candidate should be a self-starter, mature, and highly organized; possess tact, good judgment, poise, and initiative; and always maintain a professional appearance and demeanor. The Official Court Reporter must work harmoniously with others in a team-based organization and communicate effectively, both orally and in writing.

BENEFITS:

Court employees are entitled to the same benefits as other federal employees such as:

- Thirteen days of paid vacation for the first three calendar years, twenty days after three years, and twenty-six days after fifteen years. Thirteen days of paid sick leave and ten paid federal holidays per calendar year.
- Participation in the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Program, the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP), and the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) Program.
- Supplemental benefits, including health and dependent care reimbursement accounts, commuter benefits, and long-term care insurance.
- Participation in the Federal Employees Retirement System with investment opportunities through the Thrift Savings Plan (similar to a 401k).

Current Judiciary employees transferring without a break in service will maintain their current benefits.
